Honorable William J. Casey
Director, Central Intelligence
Washington, D. C. 20505

March 12, 1986

Dear Mr Casey:

On behalf of the World Trade Club of Long Island, we'd like to invite you to be the keynote speaker at our annual World Trade Day luncheon function on May 20th.

In view of your former close association with this World Trade Club, your interest in Long Island and your well-known involvement and experience in international trade, we are hoping this will be an invitation which you will be moved to accept with pleasure.

The World Trade Club of Long Island represents a broad cross section of Long Island manufacturers and service organizations. As has been the case for many years, manufacturers of defense-related products play a large role on Long Island.

As a suggested topic, you might address the question of correcting our national trade imbalance through increased exports, while at the same time protecting technology which is vital to national security. Another imbalance you might also wish to comment upon would be that which concerns the C.I.A. and its image.

If you prefer another subject, of course, please feel free to select one of your choosing.

We expect several hundred luncheon attendees from business enterprises and local government organizations. All would be extremely interested in hearing from you.

I do hope that your calendar will be free on May 20th and that you will be able to accept.

Sincerely,

Spencer Ross
Managing Director, WTRC
Program Chairman, World Trade Club of Long Island
